

Albert Algaze

ESC Consultant Since: 1990

Education:

M.B.A., Columbia University

B.M.E., City College of New York

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Marketing, sales, general management, strategic planning, executive coaching

PRIVATE SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Most recently, Albert served as the Vice President of the Information Service Division for TRW, focusing on business-to-business marketing. Before then, he was the Branch and later Regional Manager of Sales and Marketing for Xerox Corporation. Previously, Albert was a management consultant for Arthur Anderson. He has privately consulted for Comdata Corporation, Berland Technologies and First Data Corp. He focuses on pinpointing organizational issues, especially in marketing plans and sales needs. He was also an aerospace research and development engineer at Rocketdyne.

HIGHER EDUCATION EXPERIENCE: Albert taught classes in marketing at the University of California, Los Angeles Extension Department of Business and Management.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Albert is currently a member of the board of the Del Rey Yacht Club, an organization that emphasizes social engagement through a mutual passion for sailing.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: The Jewish Federation of Greater Los Angeles, Oasis, Open Paths Counseling Center, Gemstone, Variety Boys & Girls Club, Silverlake Independent JCC, Los Angeles County Education Foundation, Connections for Children, Communities Actively Living Independent & Free

INTERESTS: Spending time with family and friends, sailing, cruising, racing, golf