

Jim Bright

ESC Consultant Since: 2015

Education:

B.A., Music, Loyola Marymount University

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Human resources, marketing, strategic planning

PRIVATE SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Jim Bright was President for most of his 38 year career with Bristol Associates, Inc., a family-owned executive search firm. This mid-size boutique search firm offered highly focused, personalized services in a number of industries: health care and nursing, nonprofit, arts, casino gaming, hotel, restaurant, travel and tourism and food processing. The firm was also at the forefront of applying computerized database programs, website development and direct marketing software.

In addition to running a company, Jim was active as Executive Recruiter, working with client companies to fill key positions. He completed hundreds of searches for key executive, managerial and staff positions in operations, human resources, marketing, sales, finance and information technology.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Jim has been a longtime supporter and volunteer at The Colburn School, also serving on the Dean's Council, an ad-hoc advisory board.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: Big Sunday, LAPD Hollenbeck Police Activities League, Circle of Friends, Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority
