

Roxie Esterle

ESC Consultant Since: 2008

Education:

Ph.D., Educational Curriculum, University of California, Los Angeles

M.S., Biology, Cal State University, Los Angeles

B.S., Biological Sciences, University of California, Berkeley

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Strategic planning, evaluation design & analysis, program development, coaching, board development

PRIVATE SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Roxie co-founded and directed Workshops on Wheels, a private company that contracted with school districts to deliver professional development to teachers. She and her team traveled to each organization to assess, tailor and implement the programming.

EDUCATION SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Roxie was the Middle School Director of AJ Heshel Day School for eight years. Along with overall management, she was responsible for staff supervision, evaluation design and analysis, policy articulation, publications and strategic planning. Prior to AJ Heshel Day School, she served as the Vice President for Education at the California Science Center in Los Angeles where she managed the education department including staffing, budgeting, development and strategic planning.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Roxie's volunteer leadership includes serving as President of the Greater Los Angeles Science Teachers Association and President of the California Science Teachers Association, where she tripled membership, initiated a statewide newspaper and instituted annual statewide science teacher conferences. In addition, Roxie recently served as the President of the Los Angeles Cactus and Succulent Society.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: PUENTE Learning Center, Los Angeles Conservation Corps, Netiya, The Village Nation, Ilan Ramon Day School, Valley Village, Celiac Disease Foundation, Odyssey Charter School, Los Angeles County Bicycle Coalition

INTERESTS: Hiking, outdoor activities, collecting succulents, making pottery and jewelry, spending time with four grandchildren, reading, environmental sustainability