

Yu-Lin Kong

ESC Consultant Since: 2015

Education:

M.S., Nonprofit Management, Milano, The New School for Management and Urban Policy

B.S., History with minors in Studio Art and Mandarin Language, City University of New York Hunter College

Evidence Based Coaching, Fielding Graduate University

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Technology sector, coaching, nonprofit leadership

PRIVATE SECTOR AND GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE: Yu-Lin Kong is currently the President of ULink Consulting, a private practice that specializes in coaching executives to successfully transition and grow in their companies. Focusing on energy management and leadership development, she has worked in the technology and financial industries. Previously Yu-Lin was an Associate Consultant with Pathfinder, a human resource and organizational development practice.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE Yu-Lin spent a total of 12 years with Shaolin Temple in New York, the last five as the Executive Director. There she overhauled communications across the organization and strategically integrated technology into the organization's external relations. Before, as an assistant to the President, she managed an accurate database of thousands of members and effectively led training sessions for up to 50 people on self-awareness and confidence.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Yu-Lin is currently on the strategic partner committee and board of Bloom Again Foundation, an organization dedicated to rapid response financial assistance for working women living near the poverty level.

She has served as President of the International Coach Federation of Los Angeles and also regularly volunteers at USA Shaolin Temple. She is an alumni association ambassador for Milano, The New School for Management and Urban Policy.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: Temple Beth Hillel, Institute for Field Research

INTERESTS: Cooking, dancing, yoga, music, art