Angeles Extension

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Board development, organizational management, strategic planning, fund development and training, marketing, leadership development, communications, major gifts, capital campaign planning

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Brigette is currently Executive Director of Community Foundation of the Valleys (CFV), a foundation focused on building a culture of philanthropy by inspiring generosity. At CFV she oversees board and volunteer leadership development, strategic planning, fundraising and donor relations, communications, marketing and community relations.

Previously, Brigette was Vice President of Development, Office of Gift Planning, Southern California for Providence Health and Services Foundation. She oversaw multiple capital campaigns, major gifts, grants, special events, donor relations and employee campaigns. During her 16 years at Providence Health and Services her responsibilities grew from grass-roots fundraising and leadership at one hospital to overseeing estate planning and capital campaigns for multiple medical centers and programs throughout Providence's Southern California region. Brigette also successfully raised $43 million for building projects, equipment, and nursing education, and recruited more than 250 community volunteers for campaign committees.

Brigette has received several awards throughout her career, including the San Fernando Valley Business Journal's Women Who Mean Business award and the 2016 Southern California Association of Healthcare Development Outstanding Leader of the Year award.

PRIVATE SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Brigette previously worked with multiple financial service firms including Smith Barney Shearson Inc., where she served as Operations Manager of Capital Markets and the Regional Municipal Bond Department.
