

Alma A. Myers

ESC Consultant Since: 2018

Education:

M.B.A., International Business, American InterContinental University
B.A., International Business, University of Nevada Las Vegas
Certificate, Latina Global Leadership Program, University of Southern California

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Management, finance, research, nonprofit professional experience, nonprofit volunteer experience, leadership coaching

PRIVATE SECTOR EXPERIENCE: Alma has spent most of her career in the field of finance. She currently works as a Vice President, Private Client Services for Bank of the West where she is responsible for identifying and ensuring that client needs are met through investment, insurance, daily banking, credit and other relevant products and services.

Previously, Alma served as a financial advisor at Thrivent Financial, a financial services organization that serves nonprofit organizations and individuals, where she helped guide her clients toward retirement while fulfilling their personal financial and philanthropic goals. Before that, she was a recruiter and development manager for New York Life Insurance and Investment, a Fortune 50 company, where she worked as part of a team to develop a successful Latino market recruiting plan and create a pipeline of Latino agents to join the New York Life Latino Market Initiative at the company's fastest growing office.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Alma has served as a board member of Prospanica, the Association of Latino Professionals in Finance, the Human Service Association, and the United Latino Fund. She has also served on the Gala Committee for Adventist Health White Memorial.

INTERESTS: Travel, working out, yoga, hiking, restaurants (a foodie)