

Barry Steinberg

ESC Consultant Since: 2005

Education:

M.F.A., Motion Pictures, University of California, Los Angeles
Applied Baccalaureate in English, Princeton University

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Strategic Planning, Fundraising, Board Development, Planning & Budgeting, Personnel Management, Project Management

FOR-PROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: With over 35 years in film and television production, Barry brings significant experience in managing an organization in varied circumstances. He has worked with companies such as Warner Brothers, Paramount, MGM, Lorimar, Viacom and CBS Productions in locations such as Hollywood, the rest of the United States, Canada and Europe.

As a producer, Barry has significant experience in project planning, budgeting and managing personnel. He has delivered several hundred hours of network television, supervising both the production and post-production elements.

Barry has independent experience in the real estate and financial management industries.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Barry worked as a Deputy Juvenile Probation Officer at Central Juvenile Hall in Los Angeles.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Barry was a longtime volunteer for Chrysalis, an organization dedicated to preparing people out of work for job searches and interviews. As a volunteer, Barry provided training to the participants.

Barry is a longtime member of the Directors Guild of America and the Producers Guild of America.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: Taking the Reins, Occidental College, LA County Education Foundation, Get Lit, Virginia Avenue Project, North Pasadena Community Clinic, Imagination Workshop, Wheels for Humanity, Mayme A. Clayton Museum, Library of African-American History, Celiac Disease Foundation, Beacon House Association of San Pedro, Latino Diabetes Association

INTERESTS: Fitness, sports, books, travel