

Gene Tuch

ESC Consultant Since: 2004

Education:

B.S., Rutgers University
Management Studies, University of Chicago
Certified Public Accountant

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Information technology, software management, executive coaching, fundraising, accounting, finance, direct mail

FOR-PROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Gene has a diverse background in finance leadership through multiple organizations. Most recently, Gene was Chief Financial Officer for Loeb and Loeb, a prestigious law firm. Before then, he was the Vice President of Finance for Digem Inc., Chief Financial Officer for Libco-Adidas, Vice President of Finance and Operations for Childcraft, and President of Rylco Rubber Products. As an additional aspect of his work, Gene has significant experience navigating relationships with people from all levels, from clients to investors to board members. He also managed the IT areas for numerous companies.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Gene was Financial Controller at The Help Group, a $50 million budget nonprofit. Previously, he had been the Chief Financial Officer of Bienvenidos Children's Center, a social services children's nonprofit.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Gene is currently on the Board of Fellows of Contemporary Art and was on the Board of El Nido Family Services. He was also the President of the Rutgers Alumni Association, President and Regional Director of the Financial Executives Board LA Chapter as well as Officer and Director of the New Jersey Society of CPAs.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: Immaculate Heart Community, Community Build, Positive Alternative Choices Today, Proyecto Pastoral, Amigos de los Rios, Rising TIDE, Dolores Mission Church and School

INTERESTS: Travel, volunteering at LACMA, art, sports, reading, member of the LA Philharmonic, theater, spending time with his three children and three grandchildren