

Leadership Coaching

Strong leaders drive successful nonprofits. Executive Service Corps of Southern California (ESC) provides top-notch coaching to nonprofit leaders from organizations of every mission, size and scope.

BENEFITS

- Gain insight from an objective, dedicated and savvy thought partner with executive-level insights and experience
- Strengthen your leadership effectiveness by developing new skills, knowledge and insights
- Confidently execute strategic business decisions in alignment with your nonprofit's vision and mission
- Realize your professional goals
- Generate a culture of dedicated and inspired staff and supporters
- Lead with integrity by aligning your leadership behaviors with your core values

OUR APPROACH

Your ESC consultant engages with you in a highly confidential and dynamic working relationship – one designed to meet your individual needs and enhance your leadership capacity. Your consultant serves as your coach, thought partner, guide and as a valuable resource, throughout the entire process.

Your leadership coaching consultant works with you to...

- Develop effective management techniques, systems and infrastructure
- Instill a professional and accountable organizational culture
- Implement strategies to use your resources more efficiently
- Improve board practices around organizational decision-making
- Effectively steward relationships with supporters and stakeholders
- Prioritize activities and initiatives that address your diverse management roles

 ESC provides leadership coaching at every level, including executives, staff and board leaders.

CONTACT US!

Julia Fischer Vice President of Organizational Consulting
(213) 613-9103 x121
jfischer@escsc.org

Affordable coaching and consulting for nonprofits by executives who volunteer their services

